TINKHAM FAMILY 1784-1963.

First let me explain about the following information. Having just completed the history of my father's family, I asked the members of the Tinkham family to mail me the information and I would try to put it in some order with a number for each name for identification. We have only been at it a year, so don't have near all of it but will print up what we have. There are many names that I never knew of, but I'll do my best to spell them correctly.

In case there are mistakes, or if you have more names that should be added send them to me and I'll try to print up another list.

Send to; Glenn Shady 23710-10 $\frac{1}{2}$  Mile Rd. Southfield, Mich.

It is thought that Isaac Tinkham's ancestors came from England around 1625. He will have No. 1--1; his children No 2 for the second generation, and on down the line, and the descendants will each get a number in their order.

Wayne, Ind. containing 80 acres.

This was according to provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th. of April 1820, making provision for the sake of public lands.

The following was copied from a book called Biographical and Historical records of Adams Co. and Wells Co. Ind. Published 1887. It was sent by Mrs Dale Brandt.

Dannison Tinkham, an old settler of Blue Creek Township, was born in Vermont, Sept. 28, 1814, son of Isaac and Synthia Tinkham, natives of Vermont. In his infancy, his parents moved to Franklin County, Ohio, where he was reared, receiving good educational advantages, and in the winter of 1837 accompanied his father to Adams County, Ind. settling in Blue Creek Township, where they improved a tract of heavily timbered land.

He has been successful, his labors being rewarded by a competency for his declining years. He owns 180 acres of choice land, and has one of the pleasantest homes in the township. He is one of the oldest living pioneers of the county, and rejoices to see the improvements that have taken place in the last half century, feeling a sense of pleasure in the thought that he has been instrumental in advancing this improvement.

Mr. Tinkham was married January 25, 1844 to Margaret Scoles a daughter of Andrew and Hannah Scoles, early settlers of Adams Co. To them were born ten children, but six of whom are living, at the time this was written; Lorenzo, William, Francis, Sylvester, Rebecca, and Elizabeth.

Mrs. Tinkham died Sept. 18, 1885, leaving a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. She was an earnest Christian, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Tinkham is also a member of the Methodist Church. In politics, he is a democrat.
